[UPSELL PAGE]

You're in.

Congratulations. You're signed up for a three life-changing days. Your business is about to become a cash-producing enterprise -- if you choose it.

Right now, before you click away ...before you get pulled you in another direction, I challenge you to dig a little deeper.

You know already that implementing the ideas you learn is the key to transforming your business and your life. You can listen, and learn and talk about it with friends, your sister, your colleagues, but unless you do the work, this is just another time suck. I'm just being honest.

Entrepreneurs who want lasting change -- and more money -- break their old habits (we all have them), and they are accountable to other wealth-minded people.

Masterminds and coaching programs WORK. If you've ever been in one, you know the power of accountability, support, and full-on commitment from each and every member. But these programs are expensive, right? A couple of months of coaching runs $2000, $5000, sometimes even more...

What if you could access the tools and support you need right now for \$49?

That's right, live coaching, Q&A calls and access to other members' powerful knowledge for two full months until you start seeing bigger checks coming in.

Here's the plan. See, when we started growing this idea, we didn't want to put together "just another telesummit." We talked about it, and everyone on the panel wants you to win at this! Seriously, if you don't use this information, and walk away actually seeing that this works in your life – a tangible accumulation of money that you haven't been able to make before -- then you're back to where you started. That doesn't cut it.

If your desire is to infuse your business with cash within the next 60 days, you deserve and have my full commitment to your success.

Let's do this together.

- You'll get all the recordings of the calls (that's a given!) – 16 hours of expert information you can keep in your success library to access whenever you need a boost.
- You'll also get membership in the fast-moving 60-day challenge. That means access to coaching and support while you walk the talk and produce that blast of cash for yourself.

We're not leaving anyone behind. Gift yourself with this enormous and generous commitment – and watch your business and your life change for good. You said you wanted cash, instantly...here's your opportunity to propel your dream forward.

Two months. Will you take this challenge?

Yes, give me the recordings and enroll me in the 60-day challenge!

Di you miss it? You can still grab those 16 interviews instantly for only $49!

If you caught some of the calls, you know this is rich, wide-ranging and comprehensive, money-making content for a ridiculously low investment! You've seen lesser content bundled at $499, $199, even $99 – and that would be a great deal for what you're getting!

But I've never seen this much value in one place – to be honest, I'm still kind of shocked we went with this price!

Get the recorded calls now.

They're ready to access from one members-only page, so you can start downloading them and keep them handy to listen at your convenience. (Please do it now, though because the price goes up to $99 tomorrow!)

Now listen, you can park the recordings in some file on your computer and play them when you get the chance. That's perfect! Entrepreneurs are always swamped, and the time isn't always right to start making changes, however small. So get them and keep them. Use them when you're ready.

But please be aware...

We're moving forward with the 60-Day Blast of Cash Challenge now that the telesummit is wrapped up. (Many folks are already signed up and ready to start!)

Ready for the biggest boost your business has ever seen? Then you'll be joining the 60-day challenge and the opportunity to access membership with other entrepreneurs on the same journey. We're prepping for a huge life-giving infusion of money over the next several weeks.

Get the mp3s and join the challenge.
